- A new direct route to and from Tilbury gives you quick and direct access to the M25 London markets, the South of England and also all the Regional Distribution centres north of London / along the M1 corridor up to Birmingham.
- This route saves up to 75 miles / 125 km each way versus the traditional Dover-Calais crossing.
- Not only will you save fuel, but also save on drivers hours, and wear and tear on your vehicles and trailers.
- Fast discharge of vessels means units available in Tilbury 0600 hours or before, placing your drivers on the M25 beating the rush hour.
- Allocated space for regular round trip shippers guarantees availability to support your contracts.
- Fast turnaround of units gate to gate on all our terminals.
- Tilbury is connected by a daily rail service to Daventry.
- VIIA rail services connect Calais to Le Boulou, Macon and Orbassano.
- Our new river berth terminal in Tilbury is due for completion end Q1 2020.
- Further new routes to be introduced.

VIA offer an integrated rail-sea link between the UK and Le Bouolou, Orbassan and Macon via the Port of Calais.
